

RENTHAL WARRANTY

Renthal's products are warranted against defects in materials and workmanship. Renthal makes no other warranty, expressed or implied. Normal wear and tear from general use and damage as a result of misuse, abuse, neglect, alteration, or failure to perform maintenance is not covered.

If you would like your product to be inspected for warranty consideration, please contact us first, (if you are in the US you will receive a Return Authorization (RA) number). Product received without prior authorization and a valid RA# (if a US customer) will be refused delivery and sent back to the shipper.

All returns must be accompanied by the original receipt or copy of the original receipt unless otherwise stated by Renthal. Crashing is a part of riding a motorcycle / bicycle and Renthal does not replace bent handlebars for any reason whatsoever.
